

Examiner's Interview

On October 9, 2007, Applicant's attorney spoke with Examiner Farzaneh because the claims were incorrectly numbered in the 3 August 2007 submission, resulting in a non-compliant amendment. Applicant's attorney was instructed to renumber the new claims, correct the dependent claims within the new claims, and leave the parenthetical as identifying the claims as being new and do not mark up the new claims to show said changes. Claim 72 has been left marked-up as it was when submitted by the 3 August 2007 submission.

SUPPORT FOR AMENDMENTS

The amendments provided herein are to correct a typographical error where claim numbering skipped "73" when adding new claims. Support for the amendments as presented is found at least in the claims as filed and also please see: page 3, lines 14-26; page 5, and page 6 spanning to page 7, line 12.

CONCLUSION

Applicants believe that the claims are in order for allowance, early notice of which is requested. If Examiner has any questions concerning this application, Examiner is invited to contact the below-signed attorney. No fee should be due. However, please charge any payment or credit any overpayment to Charge Account 16-1445.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: 23 January 2008
